

Doth

Trevor Donoghue

Poetry is word to song
The good disciple to harmonise
Lasting genre examples of love
Cherished substance of moments long
An expression of the wise
Political voice when lost knowledge above

Poetry is song to word
To comfort in times
When alone and confused
A voice is heard
That to you rhymes
Demystifying the bemused

Poetry word is to song
Polyphony thoughtful for you
At times from head or heart
Apologies for something wrong
Moments timeless the thing to do
When life becomes an art

Word to song is poetry
Captured in the domains
Advertising for shopping mart
To keep you company
The release of pains
Granting you your part

Poetry is word song to
Courting for a meeting
In an exotic trance
Memorable rendezvous
A way of greeting
That come to chance

Song word is to poetry
In front and back
Back and front
Whence come from journey
A mythological track
The quaint little stunt

Doth

Poesy phonetic melody
Top to bottom
Bottom to top
Melancholy to parity
Drum the tom-tom
Diddle do dumb diddle pop

Phonetic melody poesy
Up side down inside out
Outside in down side up
How to be choosy
Or round about
An empty or half full cup

Melody poesy phonetic
The place for words to be put
Subjects are generic
Not necessarily genetic
Can be defined in a foot
Or considered eccentric

Poetic foot rhythm measured
Monometer, dimeter, trimeter tetrameter
Iamb trochaic anapest dactyl spondee
Teachings to be treasured
Pentameter hexameter heptameter
Too many for a day

Song to word is poetry
That shelters from weather
Spices aromas, my witty bit
Thus doth define me
Esoteric like peacock feathers
Enigmatic or just shit.
