

With You

A. Zaganidis

i've never held someone's hand never felt comfort between my fingers i've never kissed a pair of lips never trembled as someone's breath became my own i've never lost myself in passion never experienced the thrill of ecstasy but I swear to god I would do anything to experience these things for the first time

with you